

Northern Germany - a Jewel for Travellers

Visit Northern Germany invites you to discover the many treasures of Northern Germany. Surrounded by the North Sea and Baltic Sea, this region stretches from the Danish Border to the island of Usedom and the Harz Mountains. It offers a unique combination of UNESCO World Heritage Sites, endless beaches, rich history and cultural highlights.

With 14 impressive UNESCO World Heritage Sites - from historic cities to the Wadden Sea National Park - visitors can experience the history first hand. The region's 95 islands, including popular destinations such as Sylt and Rügen, guarantee a relaxed holiday setting and an incomparable experience of nature.

Northern Germany's coastal regions offer perfect conditions for unwinding holidays with 2,300 kilometres of beaches, while the 88,000 square kilometres of inland holiday region attract visitors with picturesque river landscapes, endless forests and charming Hanseatic Towns. Every holiday here is a special experience.

For city travellers, the Hanseatic Cities of Hamburg, Bremen and Lübeck offer cultural and architectural highlights that are deeply rooted in Northern German history. From the Elbphilharmonie concert hall in Hamburg to the Holsten Gate in Lübeck - tradition is combined with modernity here.

Families can look forward to a wide range of activities, from a visit to the Miniature Wonderland in Hamburg to an adventure in the Viking village of Haithabu. For nature lovers, there are numerous cycling and hiking trails that lead through impressive landscapes, such as the Baltic Sea cycle path or the treetop path in the Lüneburg Heath.

Culinary discoveries are also part of the programme: From typical fish dishes to Michelin-starred cuisine, Northern Germany offers a wide range of gastronomic experiences that will also convince vegetarians and vegans.

Northern Germany opens up a world full of adventures and discoveries waiting to be experienced.
